INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Healthy Kids Running Series

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of the Healthy Kids Running Series (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Healthy Kids Running Series as of December 31, 2025, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Healthy Kids Running Series and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Healthy Kids Running Series' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date of the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

Zelenkofske Axelrod LLC

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

EXPERIENCE | EXPERTISE | ACCOUNTABILITY

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Healthy Kids Running Series' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Healthy Kids Running Series' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control–related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTE 1: NATURE OF ENTITY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Nature of Operations

Healthy Kids Running Series ("HKRS") is a national nonprofit organization founded in 2009 that delivers a five-week, community-based running program for children ages 2–14. Its mission is to inspire kids to "Get Up and Go" by promoting a healthy and active lifestyle through inclusive and fun running events. HKRS operates across more than 35 states and engages local coordinators to lead events designed to build self-confidence, instill healthy habits, and foster a sense of community. Programs include age-appropriate distances and a challenger division for children with disabilities, with an emphasis on personal growth, participation, and encouragement rather than competition. HKRS envisions becoming an internationally recognized youth running initiative that empowers all children to believe in themselves and celebrate their individual achievements.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). Under this basis, revenues are recognized when earned, and expenses are recorded when incurred.

C. Financial Statement Presentation

HKRS reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following classes of net assets:

- Without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of HKRS. These net assets may be used at the discretion of HKRS' management and the Board of Directors.
- With donor restrictions: Net assets that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that will be satisfied by actions of HKRS and/or the passage of time. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of HKRS or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

D. Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying disclosures. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

E. Note Receivable

Notes receivable represents unsecured, interest-bearing obligations due under standard payment terms. These are recorded at face value, reduced by an allowance for credit losses determined through monthly analysis of outstanding balances, including review of historical performance and expected future collectability. Amounts deemed uncollectible are charged off against the allowance. Any potential uncollectible amounts are not material to the financial statements.

F. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost if purchased or at fair value at the date of donation if contributed. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives, which range from 3 to 10 years. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred, while significant improvements that extend asset lives are capitalized.

G. Leases

HKRS accounts for leases in accordance with Accounting Standards Update 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), along with all related amendments. Under this guidance, leases with contractual terms longer than twelve months are classified as either operating or finance leases. Finance leases generally apply when the lease terms allow the Organization to substantially use or pay for the underlying asset over its estimated useful life. Leases that do not meet these criteria are classified as operating leases. Lease agreements with terms of twelve months or less are treated as short-term leases and are expensed on a straight-line basis as incurred in the statement of activities. There were no finance leases held by HKRS during the year ended December 31, 2025.

Operating lease right-of-use assets represent HKRS' right to utilize the underlying leased asset throughout the lease term, including any estimated term extensions due to a purchase option. Corresponding lease liabilities represent the obligation to make future lease payments, including options likely to be exercised. Both lease assets and liabilities are recognized at the commencement date of the lease and are measured based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term.

In determining the present value of lease payments, HKRS utilizes the implicit rate stated in the lease when readily determinable. If the lease agreement does not include an implicit rate, the Organization applies a risk-free discount rate based on information available as of the lease commencement date.

HKRS evaluates options to extend lease terms, terminate agreements prior to expiration, or purchase leased assets as part of its lease classification and measurement process. Where it is reasonably certain that such options will be exercised, they are included in determining the lease term and financial reporting. Lease-related expenses for operating leases are recognized on a straight-line basis within operating expenses over the duration of the lease term.

H. Revenue and Support

Registration fees are recognized as revenue at a point in time when the related race occurs. Registration fees received in advance for races scheduled in a subsequent year are recorded as deferred revenue. As of December 31, 2025, no deferred revenue or registration-related receivables were recorded.

Contributions and sponsorships are recognized when received in the form of cash, assets, or unconditional pledges. Conditional contributions are recognized when the underlying conditions are substantially met. Contributions are recorded as with or without donor restrictions, based on the nature of the donor-imposed conditions. Donor-restricted contributions fulfilled within the same fiscal year are reported as support without donor restrictions.

I. Contributed Nonfinancial Assets

Contributed nonfinancial assets, including services and tangible items, are recognized if they create or enhance nonfinancial assets or require specialized skills provided by individuals possessing those skills. Such contributions are valued based on market comparable at the time of donation and are reported as revenue and expense in the financial statements. See Note 9 for further details.

J. Functional Allocation of Expenses

The financial statements present expenses by both functional classification and natural category. Direct expenses are assigned to the corresponding program or support function. Shared costs, such as salaries and occupancy, are allocated across functions based on management's estimates of staff time and usage.

K. Income Taxes

HKRS is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in these financial statements. HKRS evaluates potential uncertain tax positions and recognizes a liability when it is more likely than not that a position would not be sustained upon examination. As of December 31, 2025, management has determined that no such liabilities are required to be recorded.

NOTE 2: NOTE RECEIVABLE

In July 2022, HKRS entered into a $100,000 promissory note agreement with an investment adviser.
